"Reaching the Lost"

Two weeks ago we had the pleasure to have Rob and Nicole Whitacre and their family with us for the evangelism seminar. Rob spoke passionately to us through the entire seminar, and it was encouraging and thought provoking. If you were not able to be here for those lessons I would strongly encourage you to go to our YouTube page or Facebook page and watch them. It was truly incredible.

But why was it so great? If I am being honest it stepped on my toes a little bit, as I am sure it did a lot of people. We were challenged to think differently about evangelism than maybe we had ever thought before. We were encouraged to remember our personal responsibility to evangelize, to spread the Good News. We were shown that evangelism is still possible in today's world, and we were given the motivation to let nothing in our life be more important than doing the work of the Lord.

Throughout the seminar Rob discussed numerous tools, resources, and methods that can be used by anyone for one common goal: Bible studies. We need to be studying the Bible with people. Each of us know people that need to hear the Gospel. For the next several weeks we will going through one method that we all can use to study the Bible with those that we know. The booklets we will be handing out are called Back to the Bible. These lessons point people Back to the Bible and let the Bible speak in regard to what we must do to be saved. Verse by verse we all can share the Word of God.

We are also making efforts to collect contacts. Everyone should have received a bookmark for evangelism. On these bookmarks each of us are to write down names that we want to see in heaven and with whom we are going to make personal efforts to teach the truth. These personal contacts are people we should be praying for daily that they can be taught the Word of God. But we all need to realize that we are not alone in this effort. If one of the contacts on your list, or even somebody not on your initial list, is interested in studying the Bible with someone or has something going on in their life that the Church could pray for or send cards for, we want to help. Please fill out a contact card in the foyer and place it in the contact box. These names will be added to our congregational contact list. We as a congregation need to be prayful for those in our community and should take every effort we have to reach out to those around us. If you have any contacts or know of anyone in need of prayer or a card please let the Church office know.
