After Action Report

Trunk or Treat was something else. Never did I, or probably you either, think we would have the outpouring of people we did. I am not sure if anyone did, or really could for that matter, get an accurate count for the number of people we had at Siwell Road Sunday night. Could there have been things done differently? Absolutely. Was it similar to having our week-long Vacation Bible School in only an hour and a half? Quite possibly. Overall, we had an estimate of 1,000 visitors to our congregation. What a night to remember!

There were plenty of things to deal with in that situation in which we found ourselves. After the night had ended, I found myself thinking about the reflection that we presented to all those people. It is evident many within our community have now heard of Siwell Road church of Christ. We showed the love of Christ to those who came. We, to the best of our ability, were working for the kingdom of God. And, coming from a boy who has done his fair share of working in the dirt and crawling under houses for different things, Sunday night was a lot like WORK.

Being a part of the Lord's body involves work. Sometimes, that work is really hard. An example of such is in John 21 where those fishermen had to drag 153 large fish on shore in a net. To me the setting of the story and 1st century fishing tactics suggests that those fish were fighting to get out of the net and also trying to remain in the water, thus swimming down and against the men dragging them ashore. Those men had been awake all night with no success. Those men were very tired. They found themselves in a fruitful, yet stressful situation. The biggest thing I found in that story is that they were tirelessly working...to get to Jesus. I am thankful for all the tireless workers at Siwell who did all they could to leave a positive impression for the Lord.
