"You Never Mentioned Him"

When I think back on my life I have a lot of great memories with so many people. I have been blessed with a wonderful family, and I have been surrounded, my entire life, by more friends than I can count. With each one of these people I could probably tell you numerous stories of all the great times we had, the things we did, and the wonderful memories we shared, but I could also tell you several stories that were not so great. I could tell you stories of disagreements, pain, and loss. I could tell you stories of people doing what people do sometimes. We sin, we fall short, and sometimes we let each other down. The saddest stories for me involve the things that I did or sometimes failed to do. Times that I failed to do the right thing and times I definitely did the wrong thing. Of all the things I did or didn't do the one thing that haunts me more than all the rest is all of the people that have come in and out of my life that I never told about Jesus.

As Christians our lives have been transformed by Jesus and the good news of the Gospel. Why would we not want to share the good news of salvation through Jesus Christ? Are we ashamed? In Romans 1:16 we see that Paul was clearly not ashamed of the Gospel for he boldly said, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God to salvation for everyone who believes, for the Jew first and also for the Greek." Salvation through Christ was something that Paul knew he personally needed, but it was also something that he knew the rest of the world needed. Paul preached from a place of love, care, and compassion for lost souls, but he also preached and taught because we as Christians are to be working for the Lord. We are to go and teach. (Matthew 28:19-20) We are to preach the Word. (2 Timothy 4:1-5) We are to continue confessing Christ day in and day out before mankind. (Matthew 10:32-33) We are to use our time, talents, opportunities, and resources for the glory of God and for His work. (Matthew 25:14-30)

We are not promised tomorrow and neither is anybody else we know. (James 4:14) Some of the individuals that have come in and out of our lives are possibly already dead and gone, and we will never get another opportunity to tell them about Jesus. But what are we willing to do for those that are still alive? What changes are we willing and ready to make in our lives to be more pleasing to our God? On judgement day we do not want anyone to wonder why we never mentioned Jesus to them. We also do not want to miss out on heaven ourselves for failing to work for Him and teach His Word. Let us all strive daily to continue to confess Christ before men by the words that we say and by the way that we live our lives. (Matthew 10:32-33) Let us continue daily telling the whole world about the good news of Jesus Christ.

Important Announcement

We have been having some trouble with the service we use for texting and calling. If you have not been receiving messages from the Church there is a possibility that it is because of the spam filters many phone providers have put on your service to help eliminate unwanted calls and texts. To help correct this problem and to keep receiving messages from the church in the future please save the number 22300 as a contact in your phone. This is the number the church will be sending messages through.
