Our Faithful God

Men unfaithful to their promises disappoint. God, in stark contrast, is faithful. The singers of Israel pointed to our reliable God (Psalm 36:5; 119:90). Jeremiah, even in an hour of great sorrow, could write, "Through the Lord's mercies we are not consumed, Because His compassions fail not. They are new every morning; Great is Your faithfulness. 'The Lord is my portion,' says my soul, 'Therefore I hope in Him!'" (Lamentations 3:22-23). If God promised it, you can wait knowing he will keep his word.

God always keeps his promises. God's covenants most often include promises and conditions. Note Moses' emphasis on the blessings provided to those who "love Him and keep His commandments" (Deuteronomy 7:9). Joshua closed his time as God's appointed leader with similar words (Joshua 21:43; 23:14). Solomon's prayer at the dedication of the temple included the fact that God kept his promise to David (1 Kings 8:23-25).

Men may fail to keep their promises because they lack the strength or cannot due to changes in health or even death. God is able to keep his promises because he is all powerful (Jeremiah 32:17, 27); unchanging (Numbers 23:19); and all-knowing, thus he will not promise something that may be outside of his reach in the future. "For I am God, and there is no other; I am God, and there is none like Me, Declaring the end from the beginning, And from ancient times things that are not yet done, Saying, 'My counsel shall stand, And I will do all My pleasure'" (Isaiah 43:9b-10).

Those set apart in Christ experience the blessings of the promises of the Almighty through fellowship with him and his Son (1 Corinthians 1:9), assured that he will not allow temptation to come our way that we cannot overcome (1 Corinthians 10:13). Our fellowship in the light results in a continual cleansing through Christ's blood (1 John 1:7). Heaven is guaranteed by the very fact that he cannot lie. Our Savior has blazed the trail to heaven and remains there as our eternal High Priest (Hebrews 6:16-20).

Thank God we have a faithful God who has, does and will keep his promises!

Connect: Congregational Day Retreat

When we look into the book of Acts and the earliest days of the Church, we can see clearly what the Church was to be like. In Acts 2:42-47 we see the Body of Christ, those that had been baptized into Christ and added to the Church by the Lord. We see this new body, family, Church being joined together by our Lord to live and to act as His "chosen people" and "holy nation". (1 Peter 2:9) In Acts 2:42-47 we see the Church as a people that were connected to God, His Word, and His people. That same kind of connection is to be had by us as His Church today. Join us on Saturday, September 24th from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. for our Connect: Congregational Day Retreat as we continue to grow closer together and closer to our Lord.
